

Dartmouth-Hitchcock Offers Training for Medical Assistants

Medical Assistant Training Program Unemployed, Underemployed or recently separated from a job? Make a positive start in the New Year with a career in Healthcare.

Dartmouth-Hitchcock Workforce Readiness Institute and Institute for American Apprenticeships at Vermont HITEC are looking for job-seekers to become Medical Assistants. No experience is required. Up to 20 selected participants will be hired. Starts at $14.50 per hour with full benefits after successful completion of the 11 week training program (unpaid) and up to $16.50 per hour after a one-year apprenticeship, based on performance.

To learn more and participate, please apply on line by visiting <http://www.vthitec.org/>. Applications due by January 29th, 2017.