

Public Information and Public Records Requests

Public Access to Department of Labor Records

Under Vermont's Public Records Law the Department of Labor (VDOL) must provide the public with access to Department of Labor records, unless the records are protected from disclosure under specific exemptions in the Law. For non-VDOL records, please contact the agency or department responsible for the record(s) in question.

To submit a new request for VDOL records, under the Public Records Law, please contact the designated VDOL Records Officer or Liaison by email or in writing:
