

DAIRY FARMERS OF AMERICA

Dairy Farmers of America

ABOUT

St. Albans Cooperative merged with Dairy Farmers of America in 2019. DFA is a member-owned dairy cooperative with family farm members in Vermont and across the United States. At their facility in St. Albans, DFA receives and processes milk for customers throughout the northeast.

DFA also owns Northeast Logistics, one of the largest milk hauling companies in the region. Northeast Logistics drivers pick up members' milk and either deliver it directly to customers or to the St. Albans plant. There are NEL terminals located in Shoreham, Irasburg, Enosburg and St. Albans.
