

To: Vermont Legislature
From: Michael Harrington, Labor Commissioner
Date: July 14, 2020
Subject: Unemployment Insurance Weekly Update

This report includes both new and continuing efforts. New information is in RED.

Unemployment Extended Benefits

- The Department has implemented the high Extended Benefits program which will provide an additional 20 weeks of benefits to eligible UI claimants, but only after regular UI and PEUC benefits are exhausted. This program, while live, is still being reviewed and adjustments are being made as necessary.

UI Annual Determinations

- The UI Annual Determination mainframe updates were implemented. This increased the maximum Weekly Benefit Amount to $531, beginning for week ending July 11, 2020, for claimants who meet the maximum eligibility criteria.

Claim Issues

- Constituents/Claimants with UI related claim issues should be encouraged to first call the claimant assistance line at 877-214-3332. If their issue is unable to be resolved by phone, claimants can submit an online issue report at <https://vermont.force.com/DOLClaim/s/claimant-inquiry>.

UI Fraud

- The Department is actively investigating fraud as it is reported by individuals and through data analytics. We have seen fraud continue to increase and are working with our State and Federal partners to investigate cases in a timely and effective manner. Individuals who believe a fraudulent claim has been filed using their personal information should notify the Department of Labor at 802-828-4101. This line is exclusively for fraud reports. More information about fraud and the ability to submit online reports is available at: <https://labor.vermont.gov/ui-fraud>.
- Beginning Tuesday, July 14, individuals who establish an initial claim for unemployment insurance benefits with the Vermont Department of Labor may receive a phone call to confirm their identity and intent to file. This extra step is being taken to protect Vermonters against fraudulent filers using their personal information. This type of “imposter fraud” has been on the rise across the country. Individuals may ask the Department’s call center representative to provide further information to identify themselves, or if they do not feel comfortable providing information to the representative, the claimant can call the trusted Claimant Assistance Line at 877-214-3332 and select ‘Identity Confirmation’ from the menu options to connect with a call center representative. Claimants who do not validate their identity with the Department of Labor, if contacted, will likely see a delay in the processing and payment for their claim.

Claims Adjudications and Appeals

- As is normal and in line with other states, UI claims follow a natural progression of processing, and as they do, there is a percentage that eventually wind up in adjudications and appeals. These two phases in the process are more intensive in nature and can include additional fact-finding, sworn testimony by the claimant and employer, the submitting of evidence, and the conducting of formal hearings. Because of this, and in order to provide due process, claims in adjudications and appeals take exponentially longer to resolve. States across the country are seeing this as a pinch-point in the process, and like most state, Vermont is expanding its adjudication and appeals capacity. It is important to note that only federally-qualified staff, known as UI merit staff and Administrative Law Judges can adjudicate cases and hold appeal hearings.

UI Trust Fund

- The Department's Labor Market Information Division continues to build out a UI Trust Fund model based on various assumptions and trends to forecast how the Fund will perform over the coming weeks, months, and years, as we manage the Pandemic.
