ABOUT

Bread Loaf integrates planning, architecture and building solutions to help clients grow their businesses, campuses and cultural institutions. Thriving on innovative ideas and excellent work since 1968, our commitment to Bread Loaf's mission begins again every day. The primary reason that Bread Loaf has accomplished excellent work is that we hire and retain excellent people. Bread Loaf is built on a foundation of integrity and ingenuity. We value every person on our team, every planning study they develop, every architectural design they create, and every structure they build. We thrive on the innovative ideas that our people bring to work every day. If you want to contribute to a healthy, vibrant and creative company, consider exploring career opportunities at Bread Loaf.
