

CDS Club Demonstration Services

ABOUT

Club Demonstration Services CDS is the preferred in-house event marketing provider to Costco. We offer the best person-to-person marketing services in the industry, driving sales for our customers and Costco.

CDS provides Product Demonstrators who promote, share samples and information about products to Costco members by interacting with customers and management. Sales Advisors are the brand ambassadors that prepare and demonstrate food and non- food vendor products within the warehouse. They also generate brand awareness and product impressions to increase sales.
