

EastView at Middlebury

ABOUT

EastView at Middlebury's mission is to provide a resident centered retirement community that fosters independence and freedom, promotes a high quality of life, and is respectful of and open to all persons.

Our resident services professionals tailor activities and programs to the wants and needs of our residents. Every day our goal is to bring quality of life to those who live here through laughing, learning and love. Resident services also offer transportation to personal appointments and shopping, pet care services, salon treatments and more to help reduce stress and worrisome challenges for our residents. The programs and activities offered are designed to meet the needs of all our residents; Independent Living, Residential Care & Memory Care, connecting in some way whether spiritually, emotionally, or physically.
